

Bender of Twigs

D. Self began her career in communication at the Director of the WSU Speech-Language-Hearing Clinic. She was a member of the Clinic, a participant in the High School, and a member of the faculty of the clinic in many of the programs at the Clinic.

In her professional life, D. Self has had the privilege of working with many children and adults. She has received numerous awards for her excellence in teaching. Her ability to make the learning process fun and enjoyable can be seen in the classroom and clinic. She is a dedicated professional and a committed leader. As a teacher, D. Self has focused on the development of each child and their families. She has worked with various agencies and professionals to enhance the educational experience of the children and developed a model of effective communication.